

Your Gift to the Nelli Foundation

What is the Nelli Foundation?

Nelli Foundation was established in the memory of Sri Nelli Venkata Swamy by his children, grand children and friends. The Foundation has been incorporated as a not-for-profit Company under Section 25 of the Companies Act, 1956 at Hyderabad on the 20th of January, 2009. Nelli Foundation is aiming for all-round community development that ultimately leads to commonweal.

Nelli Foundation believes that kids can do anything with a great education. And every child, regardless of home circumstance, deserves the best possible education. The kids can do anything with a good education. And every child, regardless of home circumstance, deserves the best possible education.

Why is the education important?

The greatest opportunities in Indian society are offered to those Indians that have been educated. As a result, the education reduces the discrepancy between educated and the illiterate leads to the socio-economic democratisation.

Nelli Foundation's vision for Education

Every student is imbued with the confidence, creativity and imagination to seize every opportunity and to contribute productively to the nation's future.

Nelli Foundation's Mission for Education

To work with public schools, business and the community to give young people an excellent education and equal access to opportunity.

Nelli Foundation's Objectives for Education

1. To stimulate new thinking, commitment and involvement in public education
2. To engage and inspire kids in public schools during the compulsory years who are at risk of dropping out or disengaging from learning with the resources, role models and real life learning opportunities they need to stay at school to get Secondary School Certificate.

This education based in a worldview which promotes human dignity and self-worth to bring a deep and durable life change the under privileged have never before experienced. Together with you the Nelli Foundation is confident we can bring a notable transformation that will last forever and will produce a powerful impact and durable life change.

Where in India do needy and oppressed live?

The oppressed and needy of India can be found in every village, town, and city of India.

Nelli Foundation's First Three Steps for Education

On the path venturing into bigger goals, Nelli Foundation has committed to start with humble way by starting the following 3(three) programs.

1. Kalpavalli Scholarship Program - For Academic Education
2. Lilavathi Workshop Program - For Innovative Education
3. Citizen's Handbook Program - For Community Education

Kalpavalli Scholarship Program

Why Sponsor a Kalpavalli Scholarship?

There are more children in India than any other country in the world. Every day many of them live in acute danger of being trafficked, maimed, or sold into slavery. When you sponsor a Kalpavalli Scholarship, you make an investment in their freedom and their future. Without your help, most cannot stay in school or escape the poverty that puts them at risk for commercial sexual exploitation, forced labour, or bonded labour.

Your philanthropic investment has the ability to promote academic achievement and make it possible for high school students to continue their academic dreams. Your donation provides scholarships and grants high School students. You can contribute, knowing that we will use your gift to help the high School students.

For high school Students, the possibility of a better life begins with high school education. Yet each year more students are struggling to make ends meet and stay in school. Although Nelli Foundation has managed to secure some donations to keep enrolment girls in Schools, affordability has become a growing barrier to student success. You are helping the best and brightest to complete the high School Studies.

Objective of the Program

To recognize, promote and assist meritorious Girl students who cannot continue their education without financial support. Scholarships recognize past performance and promote future excellence. While this is widely recognized when one considers individual recipients, there is often less awareness of the truth in this statement at a program level. Yet most scholars accept that sprinkling a class, or a school with a few stellar individuals' results in increased collective performance. These stellar individuals also serve as recruiting beacons for other stellar individuals, with the long-term benefit being a natural expectation of excellence. Thus, availability of the scholarships is a potent means to improve the school education.

Purpose:

Socioeconomic background is the most important determinant of student achievement, more important even than what happens at school. Students from low socio-economic backgrounds are more likely to truant, have negative attitudes to school and leave school early. Improving young people's educational prospects is the best way to reverse the poverty growth, yet the cost of education and extra opportunities for children increasingly falls on families, creating a big problem for those already financially disadvantaged.

Target Group:

A girl student studying in high School (Class VI to Class X)
